Home Learning optional projects

If you would like to, please choose one project and bring it in on the first day back after the October half term.

Can you help?

- Art-- this term we will be doing art every Tuesday afternoon from 13:30 until 14:50. If any parents are able to volunteer and lend another pair of hands, it would be hugely appreciated!
- Roman Investigation day – Volunteers needed – 22/10/26 – More info TBC

Option A

History- We are learning about the Romans. Can you create a model of a Roman town? Think about the different aspects the Romans introduced such as roads, bath houses, villas and aqueducts. This can be made of Lego, clay, cardboard or even cake!

This term we are reading

The One and Only Ivan – Katherine Applegate

See my recommended reads below!

Option B

Science- We are learning about food chains and food webs. Can you create a poster of a food chain or web for a habitat of your choice? This could be the rainforest, the ocean or even your garden!

Option C

Art- This term we are looking at Pointillism. Can you create an autumn themed painting inspired by Pointillism?

Upcoming dates

Miss McCoubrey Recommends...

Perilus is a Roman boy who is crazy about chariot racing. He loves to practise in his own homemade chariot (pulled by the family goat) and dreams of riding in the Circus Maximus himself one day. But when Perilus's hero, the brilliant charioteer Scorcha, goes missing on the day of the big race, Perilus finds his wish coming true sooner than he'd imagined!

Podkin is the son of a warrior chieftain. He knows that one day it will be up to him to lead his warren and guard it in times of danger. But for now, he's quite happy to laze around annoying his older sister Paz, and playing with his baby brother Pook. Then Podkin's home is brutally attacked, and the young rabbits are forced to flee. The terrifying Gorm are on the rampage, and no one and nowhere is safe. With danger all around them, Podkin must protect his family, uncover his destiny, and attempt to defeat the most horrifying enemy rabbitkind has ever known.

What if a magical world was hiding just beyond your own backyard? When twins Arthur and Rose discover a secret portal, they tumble into The Land of Roar — a place filled with dragons, wizards, mermaids and magical creatures. But something has gone terribly wrong, and the twins must find the courage to face danger and save this incredible world.
